

Neutral hydrogen (orange) observed with the WSRT, in the spiral galaxy UGC 11891. The gas disk is lopsided, and shows an HI filament extending to the north.

ASTRON

Netherlands Institute for Radio Astronomy

